

Story Board for Missouri Settler

Prosperity
 Put it where you know what it means

1st photo

Motivation

Photo:

Caption: They wanted to go west because the entire population in the old town started to move and the west was bigger and better and had way more things to do.

2nd photo

Preparation

Photo:

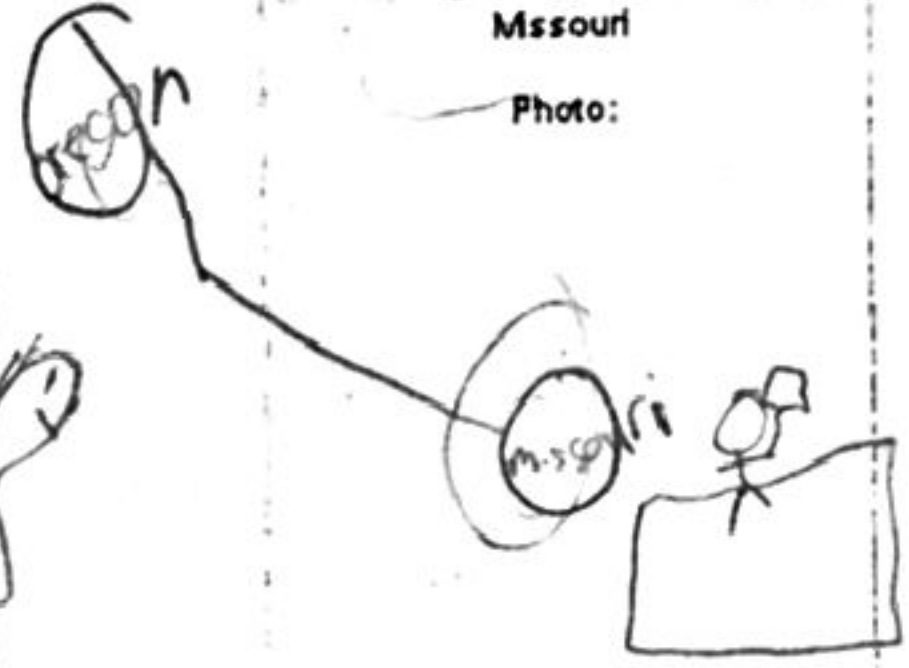

Caption: They carried 100 kilometers of food in many wagons. They also had to pack all of their stuff that was useful.

3rd photo

Missouri

Photo:

Caption: If you farmed your own land you will get the land for free and Missouri was the beginning of the Oregon trail.

Story Board for Westward Traveler

4th photo

Hardships

Photo:

Caption: They had to cross the Columbia River and a lot of people died. They took the Oregon trail and had to walk a lot. They also had bad weather and it was very hard.

5th photo

Settling

Photo:

Caption: Life was hard in their new life because they got there in late spring and had to build farms and houses.

1st photo

2nd photo

3rd photo

4th photo

5th photo

Relation to Settlers
Photo:

Caption: For hundreds of years the white settlers had been trying to move the native Americans westward.

Relation to Travelers
Photo:

Caption: the white people and the Native Americans were looking for gold when the gold rush started because the white people wanted the gold for themselves. the white people forced them out because it was like the life or death.

Effect of Expansion
Photo:

Caption: They had to move out of home land because of the California gold rush the white people wanted the gold.

Story Board for Native American

Hardships
Photo:

Caption: they faced starvation they got sick and went through rivers with boats and walk through water too.

Life for Native Americans
Photo:

Caption: most of them died and got sick because they walked through water and looked for food.

- find research